Good Neighbors at Landauer Metropolitan Inc. Bring Holiday Cheer to Residents and Staff at The Wartburg Adult Care Community

Mount Vernon, NY—December 29, 2008—Volunteers from Landauer Metropolitan Inc. have made a holiday tradition of spreading good cheer at The Wartburg Adult Care Community. They hold bake sales, starting just after Thanksgiving, to raise money for gifts for Wartburg residents, nursing staff and Adult Day registrants. On Monday, December 23, Glenna Lash, Landauer's director of human resources, arrived with two of her colleagues, Kwabena Gabay and Richard Berger, to distribute gifts. They met with several residents in Wartburg's skilled nursing center and presented each with a gift bag. Glenna, Kwabena and Richard also brought big boxes of cookies to all the nursing stations at the nursing center and to Club Wartburg Adult Day Program. At the Day program the three joined with registrants and staff in making a joyful noise, singing an impressive array of holiday carols.

The tradition of Landauer's visits started several years ago when a staff member, Alicia Woods, suggested remembering folks at The Wartburg in this way. Alicia had family members who had been cared for at Club Wartburg. While Alicia has since moved out of state, Glenna and company still keep her holiday spirit alive at Landauer Metropolitan.
