Host of The Wartburg Cares Radio Show

The Wartburg's Panel of Experts Returns to WVOX Radio

(Mt. Vernon, NY—February 25, 2011) On Wednesday, March 2, from 10-10:30m am, The Wartburg's panel of experts on senior living will return to live radio at WVOX, 1460 AM and streaming live on the website, wvox.com.

The focus of "The Wartburg Cares" monthly call-in radio show is to provide listeners tips on living longer, living better and loving life. "On the first Wednesday of every month we will share ideas for healthy lifestyles for older adults, trends in care giving and much more, said Janet Palazzolo, MSW, Administrator of Meadowview Assisted Living at The Wartburg. "We'll even answer caller questions live, on the air. Our goal is to share ideas so listeners can learn how to live as independently as possible for as long as possible."

The March 2 show will feature a conversation about Alzheimer's disease and other memory disorders, caregiver advice and resources available for help. Darlene Yancey, Memory Care Coordinator at Meadowview, will share her expert tips on the "Best Friends" method of care giving used at The Wartburg.

The Wartburg Adult Care Community is a not-for-profit Lutheran ministry, serving people of all faiths with a full range of residential options and health-related services for older area adults and their families. The Wartburg offers skilled nursing care, rehabilitation, Alzheimer's and dementia care, assisted and independent living, adult day services, home care, memory care, pastoral care and monthly caregiver support groups.
